

Pre-Assessment

Value: 4

What information should you consider when determining reliability?

[mark all correct answers]

- a. Who wrote the information?
- b. When was the information written?
- c. How long until my assignment is due?
- d. Who paid for the research?
- e. Why was the information written?
- f. Do I agree with the information?

1 / 4

Next >

Value: 2

Abstracts give you all the information in a small amount of text.

Full text gives you extra information that is not important.

- True
- False

2 / 4

< Prev

Next >

Value: 2

Which domain tag is most likely to contain biased information?

- a. .gov
- b. .edu
- c. .org

3 / 4

< Prev

Next >

Value: 2

A search engine only gathers information from reliable sources.

- True
- False

4 / 4

< Prev

Next >

Post-Assessment

Value: 4

Reliability Check List

[mark all correct answers]

- a. When it was publish
- b. Who wrote it
- c. Who paid for it
- d. Do I agree with it
- e. Does it prove my point

1 / 3

Next >

Value: 4

Match the items.

- a. Articles and research from reliable sources
- b. Collection of reliable resources
- c. Information from the entire internet
- d. Entertainment

1. Popular Magazines

a ▼

2. Databases

a ▼

3. Scholarly Journals

a ▼

4. Search Engines

a ▼

2 / 3

< Prev

Next >